Acceptance of Terms - It is understood and agreed that because transactions are conducted electronically that the credit card need not be present with NORCAL COURIER & LEGAL in order for charges to be valid and that the validity of such charges will not be challenged for that reason. It is understood that the person, firm, or company (herein referred to as the "customer") is to whom the credit is granted. If credit is granted, it is understood that your credit card will be used as guarantee of payment and that all invoices are due and payable upon receipt and will be charged to the customer's credit card in the event that invoices are not paid within 30 days from the date the services are rendered. The customer may have a third party pay the invoice directly to NORCAL COURIER & LEGAL. However, it is understood and agreed that NORCAL COURIER & LEGAL has no relationship with such third parties and has no obligation to collect from them. Payment obligation rests solely with the customer to whom the credit is granted and NORCAL COURIER & LEGAL will hold that customer liable for payment of any invoices. NORCAL COURIER & LEGAL reserves the right to restrict the credit of any customer for any reason. It is also agreed to that this contract is negotiated in San Francisco, California. It is understood that by signing this agreement you agree to our terms of use.

It is understood and agreed that a faxed copy of this agreement will be considered an original document. I hereby certify that I am either the holder of the above referenced credit card or have been authorized by the holder of said card, to use it for services provided by NORCAL COURIER & LEGAL.
